INTERNATIONAL VEGETARIAN UNION
DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and the financial statements of the company for the period ended 31 March 2022

COMPANY OBJECTIVES

The company is constituted as a 'not for profit' company and is limited by guarantee.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

The company's object continues to be that of advancing the education of the public about vegetarianism. The company occasionally gives small grants to organisations world-wide to promote vegetarianism and runs a very popular website @ www.ivu.org which has over one million pages accessed each month.

RESULTS FOR THE YEAR AND FINANCIAL POSITION

The Directors consider that the performance of the company this year has been satisfactory.

No grants were given out in this financial year.

Income from donations and memberships were up on the previous year.

IVU continued to invest in further changes to the website hosting and databases to secure its IT infrastructure

Extra costs were incurred on producing the popular Vegan Nutrition Guide

Also a much needed rebranding of IVU logos and certifications.

SVB (Vegetarian Society of Brazil) generously paid for an English translation of the Nutrition Guide

Investment values were down and Reserves stand at £68,191

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

To assist the future Vegfest Congress around the world and improve our website.
